

Deaf Studies Trust what we have done ..1984 - 2017

The Deaf Studies Trust (DST) established 33 years ago (1984) is a research-based charity with a national aim to enhance and improve the quality of deaf people's lives and their communication with society.

Projects and Activities in the Deaf Studies Trust since its beginning

The Trust has been active since 1984 in setting up projects which improve the situation of deaf people in the UK. Projects are either small projects to initiate new areas of work or large scale research contracts to deliver results to a specific brief and deadline. Almost all projects are as a result of commissions or competitive tenders. The Trust also applies its findings through courses and workshops. Some of the research is open and available - other studies are commissions which are closed and only available to the funders. Where we can, we release the reports. You can access many of these reports at www.deafstudiestrust.org/downloads
